

“The Good Earth Way”

A Red Bird Community Gathering

April 24th 2022

The beginning...

What is The Good Earth Way? It is a way of life that honors all faiths, all cultures, all expressions of love, and individual identity. Respect is at the center of the Earth Way of life. Respect for each other, the Earth, and all forms of life.

These are some of the possibilities that can occur in the monthly gatherings...

- ❖ Co-creation – Intentional community building for healing, unity, and multi-cultural celebration
- ❖ Family programs to support children in growth and development
- ❖ Living in and learning about Earth Medicine
- ❖ Ceremonies for Healing, Spiritual Growth, and a New Vision for humanity

The First Gathering will be to establish interest and co-creation potential. Anyone who attends will have the opportunity to walk on the land, spend time by the fire and share in the Vision. Registration is limited and needed to attend.
